Allen W. Dulles Esq.
1308 29-th St. N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles,

Please, overlook this letter being addressed to your home. There is a reason for it.

Attached, you will find copies of a few letters. They will partly show the strain and enmity under which my wife suffered for many years. The man, Scoblionko, mentioned in them, is the continual irritant. I do hope that Mr. Houston is not going to be misled by his machinations.

You are entitled to a short resumé of our life before you could judge impartially. I am in my 75-th year, my wife 10 years younger. I established myself as an Architect in 1900. Planned and built a cathedral 50 years ago. I had a fruitful and honorable career. I was a wealthy man to find myself, together with my wife, in a furnished room, without ready funds. AND not through our fault. If you will requisition the file, from Mr. Houston, it might shed some light on the subject. I mention it only shortly, that it deals with a CIA employee, or employees, who ~~EXX~~ engineered a landgrab of 10,000 Acres, who owe us now hundreds of dollars, which we miss.

Over a year ago, I suffered a stroke of my entire right side. Since then my wife was my nurse but she is breaking under the strain, especially now, when both of us suffer from influenza. It is a reprehensible and unamerican situation against two sick people.

A few days ago, Mr. Houston wrote, in which he disclaimed any responsibility but sympathized with our plight. It seems to me, that the CIA should not be carrying an added burden through the inhuman landgrab of an employee or employees.

My wife joins me in the hope of an impartial and human and just review of the entire case. I did not have the honor of a personal hearing by Mr. Houston. I do ask you for same.

Mrs. de Bobula just mentions to me that she was in the 1911 class of Bryn Mawr together with Margaret Dulles. She does not know her present address.

I am, sincerely,

de Bobula

In re: Minnie D.Ward vs.Eurana Mock DeBobula

Dear Mrs.DeBobula:

Although you are persistent in your unwarranted tactics with respect to the Mausoleum, nevertheless, I am enclosing herewith Mrs. Walters check in the sum of $50.00. It would seem to me that your continued attacks to distress Mrs.Ward are entirely without justification, either in law, fact or morals. Let us hope that the New Year will bring you a greater sense of propriety in this connection.
yours very truly, SCOBLIENKO & FRANK (Signed)

From Joseph C.Suraci Esq. Union Trust Bldg. to E.G.Scobliencko, Allentown, Penna. 12-23-52
Dear Mr.Scobliencko: Mrs.Eurana DeBobula has forwarded to me your letter to her of 12-15, I am at a loss to understand the statements made in your letter in reference to her attempts to distress Mrs.Ward.

I helped her prepare the answer in the pending action in Pittsburgh to construe the wills involved and to adjust the rights of the parties with respect to the cemetery. I could not help but come to the conclusion that Mrs.Eurana DeBobula is the owner in fee of at least one-fourth of the cemetery plots involved as well as the mausoleum. In the District of Columbia a mausoleum as large as this one has been described to me which would cost over $50,000.00 to build.

If I am not mistaken in the conclusion which I have reached, then it would seem that Mrs. DeBobula has a substantial interest. Maybe, if Mrs.Ward would make Mrs.DeBobula a satisfactory offer for her interest in the cemetery sites and mausoleum it might solve the problems of both parties. ON November 24, 1952 I wrote to Mr. David Roth at Pittsburgh and made the same suggestion to him, but I have yet to hear from him. I do honestly feel that some effort at a reasonable settlement should be made and I would like to hear your views with regard to the situation.
Very truly yours, JOSEPH C.SURACI (Signed)

From Eurana Dinkey Mock de Bobula, P.O.Box 1356, Wash'n D.C. to Scobliencko.

Dear Mr. Scobliencko, January twenty-five-Nineteen hundred fiftythree.
Your letter must be refuted before you, yourself, believe the contents. Mrs. Walter must have had heart failure before sending her sister fifty dollars for Christmas. Your heading of the letter, "In re Minnie D.Ward vs. Eurana Mock DeBobula" is erroneous. I wager Mrs. Walter weeps over some poor Korean that she never saw while sending her blood what rightfully belongs to me. As for morals, what about Mary Walter taking my Mother's bonds from under the rug and appropriating them instead of handing them to me as administratrix? You were guilty of the suicide of Doctor Walter. You had everything set for his divorce. As for Mrs.Ward, her own conscience is distressing her. She ignored a New York Court Order to turn over three articles belonging to my Mother. She must think that she is above the law. But, I call on the Higher Law to deal with her. What mother could put her son "Bud", out of his own home before Thanksgiving with a pregnant wife? She could and did. Of course, her conscience must distress her. If you are asking God not to be God, you are asking in vain. I put all of you in His Power. XXXX If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues—and if any man shall take away from these words, God shall take away his part out of the book of life. I am,

Eurana Dinkey Mock
